

Director of Music Ministries
Druid Hills Presbyterian Church
1026 Ponce de Leon Ave. NE, Atlanta 30306

Purpose:

Develop and oversee a music ministry that is:

- vibrant and fully integrated into the worship life of the church
- engaging and enriching the voice of the whole congregation
- Theologically Reformed, honors the classical fabric of the church's music history while balancing styles and embracing a breadth of musical traditions

Responsibilities:

- Select, plan and prepare music for Sunday and occasional midweek services
- Participate in the creative planning of worship with the pastor and worship staff
- Recruit, equip, motivate, supervise, resource and shepherd the chancel choir, bell choir and any other music ministry teams organized by Director
- Assess gifts and develop music program to enrich and enliven congregational participation in music

Skills:

- Strong Christian faith and competence in Reformed Theology and Reformed Worship
- Minimum of a Bachelor's Degree
- Experience in choral conducting
- Self-starter, excited about partnering with congregation through a time of re-visioning
- Multi-instrumentalist or skill and excitement for incorporating diverse instrumentation
- Enthusiastic, creative and resilient, with a willingness to try things that may fail
- Teaching spirit, willing to equip and encourage
- Comfortable and competent with computers
- Has good interpersonal, communications and organizational skills and the ability to work in partnership with staff, church leadership and congregants

Hours: 15 hours per week

Contact: Please direct questions and resumes to employment@dhpc.org, or contact our pastor, Rev. Shelli Latham, by phone at 404-875-5791. For more information about our church, visit our website at www.dhpc.org.